

Privacy Policy

“Doors to Hope, a Sisters of Charity of Nazareth ministry, respects the privacy of our donors and website visitors.”

Thank you for visiting the Doors to Hope website and reading the Doors to Hope Privacy Policy Statement. Doors to Hope is a ministry of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth, a 501(c)(3) non-profit, publicly supported organization. Contributions are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law.

In order to fulfill its mission, Doors to Hope maintains databases that are compiled exclusively of information knowingly and voluntarily provided to Doors to Hope by our donors and website visitors. Doors to Hope respects the privacy of our donors and website visitors. Doors to Hope does not disclose, give, sell, or transfer any personal information about our donors and website visitors unless required for law enforcement or otherwise required by law. Please note Doors to Hope receives Memorial and Honorary donations both on-line and through the mail. Doors to Hope may list the name, city and state of the donor and the occasion in our print Newsletter. This is a well-established policy adopted by most charitable organizations. However, donor amounts and specific addresses are not disclosed. Donors who want the amount of their donation publicly disclosed may request the same from the Doors to Hope.

Website users are justly concerned about what information is being collected, and how it is being used.

Doors to Hope’s policy is that it does not disclose, give, sell, or transfer any personal information about the Doors to Hope website visitors unless required for law enforcement or otherwise required by law.

We must disclose pertinent credit card information to appropriate banking institutions for those persons using credit cards to make donations to Doors to Hope. However, credit card information collected by the Doors to Hope is used strictly for billing purposes.

Site Visitorship Data

Doors to Hope, a Sisters of Charity of Nazareth ministry, routinely gathers data on Web site activity, such as how many people visit our website, the pages they visit and where they come from.

Site visitorship data is collected on an aggregate, anonymous basis, which means no personal information is associated with this data.

Please be aware that our website contains links to other websites and that the privacy practices of these other websites may differ from those of Doors to Hope. Each website is responsible for its own privacy practices.
